If this individual was deployed to the Middle East and subsequently suffered from PTSD, maybe we shouldn't be questioning California's gun laws, which are the strictest in the country, but instead asking why Americans soldiers are engaged in wars to keep Israel safe? (1/4)

They never let a good tragedy go to waste 🐦 The Synagogue shooting was used to attack free speech, this shooting is used to attack gun rights. Curious if the Founding Fathers ever considered that their descendents would be called terrorists by rootless squatters? (2/4)

If these people were able to subvert 1,800 years of Christian doctrine in under a century, what makes anyone think they can't amend the Constitution and strip Americans of their right to bear arms? (3/4)

A Roman poet once said, "Gutta cavat lapidem," meaning dripping water can hollow out stone. It is through a persistent narrative that they will convert 2/3 of the states necessary to abridge Americans' gun rights. It is not a matter of if, but when. (4/4)
